"BATTLE CRY OF PEACE" IS COMING

SPLENDID FEATURE WILL BE SHOWN HERE ON LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY

Jules Smith, manager of the Butler theater, always in the field for live attractions, has succeeded in securing one of the best available features for his attractive playhouse to be shown on Lincoln's birthday. The title of this feature is, "The Battle Cry of Peace," a call to arms against war, and is considered one of the most realistic reproductions on the screen today. Mayor Thompson of Chicago in a long letter addressed to the producer states, "It is a lesson that no true American can fail to heed, and I urge every man, woman and child who can do so, to see this wonderful picture." At the present moment President Wilson is making a campaign in the eastern and middle west states regarding the very theme represented by this picture.

There is no doubt that "preparedness" is a question of the gravest import and one that demands the attention of the entire American nation regardless of politics, religion or anything else. We have read and re-read the horrible atrocities of the present war and these articles only portray to our mind a feeble thought as to the real conditions brought on by the greed of monarchs in their endeavor to maintain their respective stations. The average American who has not been able to ascertain the real facts firmly believes that America is well protected from any invading enemy.

This picture brings to mind very forcibly just exactly how inadequate are the national defenses, and in the words of Bishop Samuel Fallows, "is the greatest argument for preparedness ever conceived." This picture will be shown at the regular matinee hour, 1:30 p. m., and the first evening performance will commence at 6:20 o'clock and the second at 8:45 p. m. These changes in the time of the evening performances are made necessary on account of the length of the program which consists of nine reels which demand an unusual interest throughout.

BIG GAME BEING DRIVEN OUT OF MOUNTAINS

According to the Gardnerville Courier, reports brought from Antelope valley since the big storm of last week are to the effect that the heavy snow in the mountains has driven quite a number of deer down into the valley in search of feed. It is also stated that three bears and a number of mountain lions have sought the lower valleys since the storm. In the vicinity of Carter's Station, 12 miles south of Gardnerville, a large mountain lion has taken up winter quarters and his tracks have been seen by travelers to those parts. Two years ago Indian Mike killed a large mountain lion near Carter's and it is believed that the one now known to be in that neighborhood is the mate to the one killed by Mike. Antelope valley quail have been driven to the barns in search of food and many of the birds have perished for the want of food.

MEETING POSTPONED

The meeting that was called for last evening in the Mizpah hotel club rooms, for the purpose of forming a permanent relief committee, was postponed because of the unavoidable absence of several of the members. It was decided to hold another meeting at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at the same place, when a large attendance is desired.

IT'S A LONG WAY FROM OLD REVELLE

AUTOISTS EXPERIENCE GREAT DIFFICULTY IN REACHING TONOPAH

The experiences of F. H. Conant in bucking the snow and traversing the inundated flats between Revelle and Tonopah sound like a romance, but the only thing that sounds unnatural is that he really succeeded in his bold undertaking.

A. J. Jenkins and his traveling companion and both young men tell of difficulties that could not have been surmounted if their car had been a regular automobile instead of a mere Ford. Provisions were getting low. There was some flour left in camp, but all the meat obtainable was that of rabbits that were trapped.

The first day's journey was to Stone Cabin. Then they took the Golden Arrow road, afterwards the road to Goldfield, then they swung around via Coyotes Holes and Reed's Wells. There was so much water in Raiston valley that they had to detour through the sagebrush.

WORKING HARD FOR LOCAL KINDERGARTEN

SUPERINTENDENT T. F. M. FITZGERALD COMES GALLANTLY TO AID OF THE LADIES

Yesterday afternoon Thos. Fitzgerald devoted his auto and his own services as driver to the use of the ladies circulating the petition for the establishment, equipment and maintenance of the kindergarten in Tonopah the coming school year. These ladies, Mrs. McNamara, Mrs. Davenport and Mrs. Jeffries, in a few hours secured the signatures of the parents of about fifty children between the ages of four and six years. As this is double the number required it is evident that the people of Tonopah are enthusiastic boosters for the kindergarten. At a meeting of the board of education last evening the petition was received and the desired action taken by unanimous vote. The board immediately proceeded to adopt a resolution requesting the county commissioners to levy a special tax to raise the amount of money estimated to be necessary for the purposes. The resolution was delivered to the board of county commissioners last evening for their action.

MINERS OF ENGLAND ON ENLISTMENT BILL

(By Associated Press.)
LONDON, Feb. 9.—The conference of miners called, as a sequel to the recent labor meeting at Bristol to consider the military service bill, opened today at Lancaster. President Camille said that the discussion would be as to whether the miners would quietly accept the compulsory military service law or agitate for its repeal, or develop opposition to its enforcement.

Why the Sea Has Pearls.

A few weeks ago I was talking with a woman of deep religious sentiment who was in great distress because her very young baby had died before it could be baptized.

I was led to ask natives of Norway, Finland and other places their views on this very delicate question, and so I came across a bit of very pretty Sicilian folklore.

To the babies in Sicily life is very kind and death is gentle. Those who die unbaptized are doomed to wander, but do not wonder grieving. Madonna Mary sends to them every week end an angel, who lays aside his lily crown and romps with the dead babies. When he leaves them he gathers up in a golden chalice all the tears they have shed during the week. These he casts in handfuls into the sea, "and that is why the sea has pearls." I like that story.—Vancouver World.

Effects of Lying.

Lying is a great sin against God, who gave us a tongue to speak the truth and not falsehood. It is a great offense against humanity itself; for where there is no regard to truth there can be no safe society between man and man. And it is an injury to the speaker; for besides the disgrace which it brings upon him, it occasions so much baseness of mind that he can scarcely tell the truth or avoid lying, even when he has no color of necessity for it, and in time he comes to such a pass that as other people cannot believe he speaks the truth, so he himself scarcely knows when he tells a falsehood. As you must be careful not to lie, so you must avoid coming near it. You must not equivocate, nor speak anything positively for which you have no authority but report, or conjecture or opinion.—Sir Matthew Hale

BUTLER THEATER

"The Destroying Angel," a five-reel Edison production, to be shown at the Butler this evening, is a fascinating story of romance and tragedy told in film in a manner that leaves little to be desired. Its title is extremely appropriate, tragedy apparently going hand-in-hand with admiration or love for Mary Ladislus. The man she first chose for a husband is killed in an automobile accident; the next admirer upon whom she looks with favor is murdered, and still another meets the same fate. The kindling of love in their breasts appears to be the signal for tragedy to stalk forth. Association with her, a pure, charming, lovable girl, means only misfortune and death. A trail of human misery and death marks her path through life until finally Hugh Whittaker breaks the spell and foils the assassin. His is the charmed life and through him is found a powerful climax, bringing to "The Destroying Angel" release from a terrible thrall of tragedy. Mabelle Trunnell as Mary Ladislus, and Marc Macdermott, the popular leading man of the Edison company, as Hugh Whittaker, have the titular roles.

The preliminary reel will be a Pathe comedy. Tomorrow, "Salvation Nell," a thrilling story of social uplift in the underworld, featuring Beatriz Michelena.

Saturday, the picture all should see; matinee at 1:30; the first night show at 6:30; second at 8:45.

By a resolution passed at the meeting of the Board of County Commissioners, the Chief of Police was instructed to enforce the following Ordinance, No. 17, and the same to be done immediately. License tags will be ready for delivery in about seven days, and can be obtained at the Chief of Police office.

ORDINANCE NO. 17

For the licensing of dogs, and for the extermination of all unlicensed dogs found, owned or kept by any person or persons in the Town of Tonopah, Nye County, Nevada, the Town of Tonopah, Nye County, Nevada, do ordain:

Section 2. It shall be the duty of the Constable of Tonopah or any person authorized by him, to pass over any person who pays the tax imposed by Section 1 of this act a brass or metal tag, with the words "Tonopah Dog Tax Paid," stamped on said tag, together with the year for which said tag is issued. Said tag must be so made that it can be easily fastened to the collar of the dog for which said tag is paid, and it shall be the duty of the owner or person paying such tax to fasten said tag on the dog for which the tax is paid; provided, that should the dog on which a tax has been paid to date, be found without said tag, such dog must be impounded as authorized in Section 3 of this ordinance, and be released upon the owner, or the owner of the dog, producing said tag, and paying a fine of $50 for failure to have the tag on said dog.

If during the said three days the owner of any dog impounded, or other person, shall pay the tax above provided for, and said fee of $50 to the Constable, then said Constable shall release said dog to the owner or person paying the tax.

Section 4. If upon the expiration of three days, the owner of any dog fails to pay the tax on such dog, and the fee of $50, to the Constable for taking care of such dog, then the Constable shall destroy such dog, and shall remove the carcass of the dog destroyed at such distance from the Town of Tonopah as shall not endanger the health thereof, and for each dog destroyed and removed as above provided the Constable shall receive the sum of $1.25.

Section 5. The Constable shall be allowed and paid the sum of $50 on each male dog, and $1.00 on each female dog on which he shall collect the tax herein levied.
